Scope and Content Note: This document is a photocopy facsimile of the nominal census of the population of the parish of Saint Bruno (Van Buren, Quebec) conducted by its resident priest, Father Pierre Stanislas Vallée in 1872. The census includes information about the location of the household, the names of its residents, their ages, the number of years of marriage of heads of household, birthplace, names of parents, occupation, and remarks. In addition, there are genealogical annotations by Guy F. Dubay of Madawaska, Maine. The census will be of interest to historical researchers and genealogists.

Biographical Note: Pierre Stanislas Vallée was born in Montmagny, Quebec, June 29, 1830. He was educated at the Collège Saint-Anne-de-la-Pocatière, in La Pocatière, Quebec, and was ordained as a priest November 19, 1857. He served as a vicar in l'Islet, Quebec from 1857 to 1862. From 1862 to 1865 he served as the first priest of the parish of Ste-Anne-des-Monts, in the Gaspé region of Quebec. From 1865-1866, he served as the priest of Notre-Dame-du-Portage, Quebec, following which he was a professor at his alma mater from 1866-1870.

In 1871, the Archbishop of Quebec City assigned Father Vallée as the ninth priest to the parish of Saint Bruno, in Van Buren, in response to a request from the Bishop of Portland, Msgr. Bacon.

Father Vallée arrived in late 1871 and conducted his parish census in 1872. St-Bruno parishioners were conflicted over the Diocese of Portland's decision to build the new parish church at some distance from the site of the original parish chapel. In spite of harassment and vandalism by discontented parishioners, Father Vallée succeeded by 1873 in overseeing the building of a new church according to his own design. However, he became very ill from living in the cold and drafty rectory, which was relocated to the new church site in Violette Brook. Father Vallée never recovered from his illness and died at the home of one of his brothers in St-Jérôme-du-Lac-Saint-Jean in 1875. Parish Note: Saint-Bruno parish was canonically erected in 1827. Until 1838, it was a mission of Saint-Basile parish in Saint-Basile, New Brunswick. Its first priest was Abbé Antoine Gosselin, who served until 1852. In 1870, the jurisdiction of the parish was transferred from the Diocese of Saint John, New Brunswick to the Diocese of Portland, Maine.
