Foreword

To celebrate the Games of the XXI Olympiad, Canada, Québec, Montréal, and COJO put together an enterprise of unprecedented proportions. With the support of the entire Canadian nation, thousands of ordinary men and women joined forces to score a resounding triumph with this the greatest festival of sport in the world.

In addition, what must also not be forgotten is the undying effort expended by those other men and women — the athletes — who strove to their utmost to guarantee the Montréal Games the success they deserved.

In point of fact, no less than 6,189 athletes and 2,661 additional team members brought life into the magnificent Olympic surroundings by the simple force of their exploits. And these very exploits were the product of physical mastery coupled with pure strength and powerful concentration crowned with elegance.

And when, after a hard-won victory, the champion raises his arm in a salute on the podium, he does it not in defiance but to share with the crowd a burden that is simply too heavy for him to bear alone! What usually follows is that the public immediately takes the name of the conquering hero for its own and etches it in its memory forever.

For who can ever forget the pert gymnast, Nadia Comaneci, and her seven perfect scores? Or those outstanding performers on the track and field: Alberto Juantorena, Bruce Jenner, and Tatiana Kazankina? Or Kornelia Ender and John Naber in the swimming pool? Or Klaus Dibiasi on the diving board? Or that personable weightlifter, Vasily Alexeev?

For them and for everyone else who participated, Volume III of the Official Report is more than just a parade of hit performances. On the contrary, it is a complete results summary dedicated to them.

And the contents of this volume would not have been possible without the outstanding devotion to duty of the hundreds of international officials to whom we hereby express our undying gratitude for their priceless contribution to this part of the report.

And we hope that the emotions of those who witnessed the Games will be fired once more upon pouring over the statistics, the photography, the names, and the numerous record-breaking performances of the Games of the XXI Olympiad.

De précieux apports pour la physionomie de Montréal:
les installations sportives du Parc olympique et les pyramides du village des athlètes érigées pour les Jeux de 1976.

Montréal's skyline was forever altered by the soaring structures of the magnificent sports facilities and the athletes' village (foreground) created for the 1976 Olympic Games.

Sa Majesté Élisabeth II vient de proclamer l'ouverture officielle des Jeux de Montréal. Le drapeau aux cinq anneaux entrelacés est hissé, au Stade olympique, sous les regards d'une foule enthousiaste, composée de 90 000 personnes, athlètes et spectateurs, sans compter l'assistance innombrable de la télévision.

Moments after Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II has officially opened the Montréal Games to celebrate the XXI Olympiad of the modern era, the Olympic flag begins its triumphant ascent into history before a wildly cheering crowd of 90,000 athletes and spectators in Olympic Stadium together with millions of television viewers round the world.

Malgré l'absence du Tanzanien Filbert Bayi, le Néo-Zélandais John Walker remportera difficilement le 1500 m, devant le Belge Ivo Vandamme, et Paul H. Wellmann, de la République fédérale d'Allemagne.

Even without Tanzania's Filbert Bayi, New Zealander John Walker was hard pressed to win the 1,500-m gold from silver medalist Ivo Vandamme of Belgium and bronze medalist Paul H. Wellmann (GER).

Un des derniers grands moments pour le Belge Ivo Vandamme qui vient de remporter au 1 500 m sa seconde médaille d'argent. Cet athlète plein de promesses devait perdre la vie sur la Côte d'Azur, peu après les Jeux de Montréal, dans un accident de la route.

One of the last great moments for Belgium's Ivo Vandamme as he finished second in the 1,500 metres for his second silver medal. The great runner met a tragic death in a car accident on the French Riviera not long after the Games.

Finale du 5 000 m. Lasse Viren, le Finlandais volant, à la conquête d'une quatrième médaille d'or olympique. Le suivent de près, le Néo-Zélandais Dick Quax (691) et Klaus P. Hildenbrand (420), de la République fédérale d'Allemagne, qui se classeront deuxième et troisième. On aperçoit également le Néo-Zélandais Rod Dixon (689), le Britannique Brendan Foster (364).

Lasse Viren, the flying Finn, on his way to a fourth Olympic Gold Medal, this time in the 5,000 metres. In hot pursuit are Dick Quax of New Zealand (691), who won the silver medal, and Klaus P. Hildenbrand of the Federal Republic of Germany (420) the bronze. Other finalists are Rod Dixon of New Zealand (689), the British Brendan Foster (364).

Le Finlandais Lasse Viren sourit, et pour cause: il vient de recevoir une deuxième médaille d'or (5 000 mètres) aux Jeux de Montréal.

Lasse Viren (FIN) has reason to smile as he receives his second gold medal of the Montréal Games for the 5,000-metres.

Au 110 m haies, Guy Drut, cinquième couloir, va mettre fin à la domination américaine qui dure depuis 1928, et remportera l'unique médaille d'or de la France en athlétisme.

The last time the United States lost in the 110-m hurdles was in 1928, but Guy Drut (FRA) in lane 5 broke this streak and won his country's only gold medal in athletics.

Le tour de piste des vainqueurs: les Américains Mike Shine (959) et Edwin Moses viennent de remporter les médailles d'argent et d'or au 400 m haies.

The U.S. 400-m hurdles duo of Mike Shine, silver medalist, and Edwin Moses, gold medalist during their victory lap.

Ces trois coureurs, qui ont encore deux obstacles à franchir, toucheront le fil d'arrivée du 3 000 m steeplechase dans le même ordre. Ce sont le Suédois Anders Garderud, premier, le Polonais Bronista Malinowski, deuxième et Frank Baumgartl, de la République démocratique allemande, troisième.

Accelerating toward the final two obstacles in the 3,000-m steeplechase brought no change in the order of these three competitors: gold medalist Anders Garderud (SWE), silver medalist Bronista Malinowski (POL) and bronze medalist Frank Baumgartl (GDR).

Le Mexicain Daniel Bautista prend la tête dès le départ du 20 km marche, où les concurrents font deux tours de piste dans le Stade olympique avant d'emprunter le circuit fermé entourant le Jardin botanique, à proximité du Parc olympique.

Daniel Bautista (MEX), gold medalist in the 20-km walk, wasted no time taking the lead as shown here. The walkers do their two laps in the Olympic Stadium before entering the Botanical Garden and the main route of the walking event.

Soixante-sept marathoniens au départ d'une longue course de deux heures, sous la pluie, dans les rues de l'île de Montréal.

Sixty-seven marathoners prepare for two hours of pounding the rain-soaked streets of Montréal.

À mi-chemin dans la course à pied, le peloton de tête est mené par le Finlandais Lasse Viren qui devait terminer au cinquième rang.

At the mid-point of the marathon, a small group of competitors have detached themselves from the pack and are led by Lasse Viren who finished fifth.

Au moment critique de la course, l'Américain Frank Shorter, gagnant du marathon de Munich, s'efforce vaillamment de tenir tête à Waldemar Cierpinski de la République démocratique allemande.

Munich's Marathon Champion, Frank Shorter of U.S.A. makes a valiant effort to keep pace with GDR's Waldemar Cierpinski during one of the race's more crucial moments.

Plus que 400 mètres avant la victoire pour Waldemar Cierpinski lors de la dernière et de la plus prestigieuse épreuve de la compétition d'athlétisme.

For Cierpinski (GDR) only 400 metres to victory in the most prestigious and final event of athletics.

Détenteur du record mondial au triple saut, le Brésilien Joao C. de Oliveira n'a pu remporter de médaille au saut en longueur à Montréal.

The world record-holder for the triple jump, Joao C. de Oliveira of Brazil, was not as fortunate in the long jump in Montréal as he finished out of the medals.

Au saut en longueur, l'Américain Arnie Robinson, le premier à s'exécuter, réussit d'emblée une marque de 8.35 m et remporte la médaille d'or.

As happened in the women's long jump, the first competitor in the men's event, Arnie Robinson (USA) leaped to a gold medal with an impressive 8.35 metres on his first attempt.

Au triple saut, le Soviétique Viktor Saneev sera le premier athlète non américain à entrer dans le groupe sélect des trois médailles d'or consécutives.

Triple jumper, Viktor Saneev (URS) bounding his way to a third successive Olympic gold medal in this event, the first non-American to join the exclusive club of triple gold medalists.

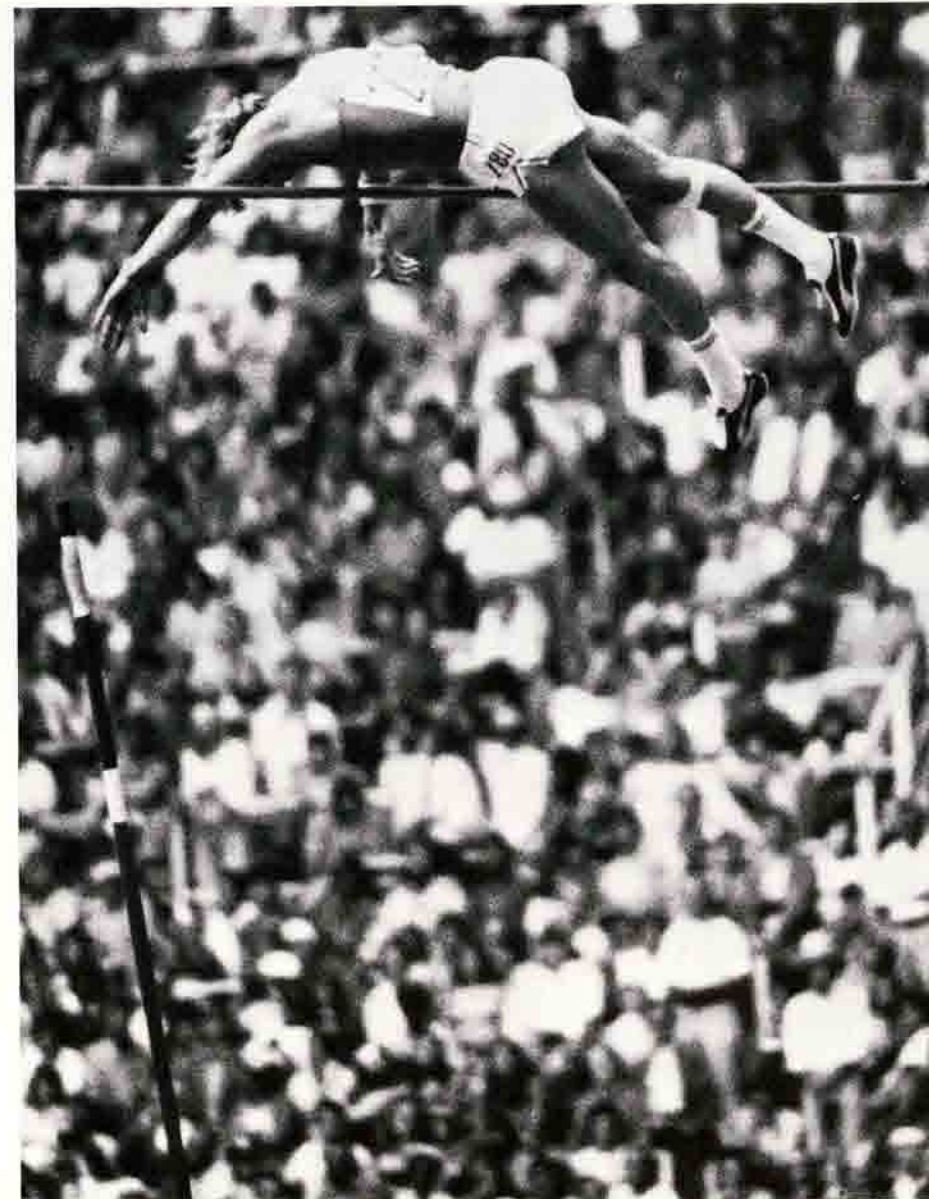

Au triple saut, l'Américain James Butts n'épargnera aucun effort pour supplanter le Soviétique Viktor Saneev, mais il finira en deuxième place derrière lui.

James Butts (USA) attempts to overhaul triple jump leader Viktor Saneev (URS), but the distance was not sufficient and he had to settle for the silver medal.

Même s'il franchit ici la barre à la même hauteur que le Polonais Tadeusz Slusarski, le Finlandais Antti Kalliomaki devra lui céder la première place puisqu'un plus grand nombre d'essais lui ont été nécessaires.

Even though he reached the same height as the winner, Tadeusz Slusarski (POL), Antti Kalliomaki (FIN) had to settle for the silver medal because of his greater number of attempts.

La Hongrois Miklos Nemeth crée un précédent aux Jeux olympiques en remportant la médaille d'or au lancer du javélot. 38 ans après que son père, Imre Nemeth, eut fait de même au lancer du marteau, aux Jeux de Londres en 1948. Se sont joints à lui sur la tribune, le Finlandais Hannu Sütönen et le Roumain Gheorghe Megelea, respectivement deuxième et troisième.

In winning the gold medal in the javelin, Miklos Nemeth (HUN) completed the first-ever father-son gold medal double in Olympic history. His father Imre won the hammer throw in the 1948 Games in London. On the podium with Nemeth are silver medalist Hannu Sütönen (FIN) and bronze medalist Gheorghe Megelea (ROM).

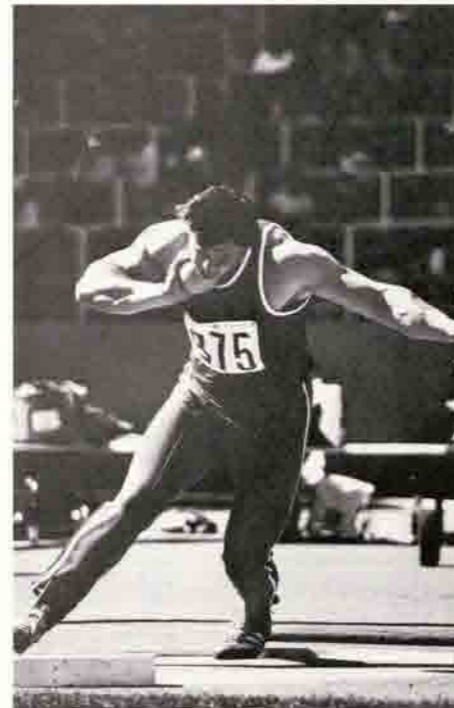

Au lancer du marteau, l'équipe soviétique a démontré sa supériorité et ses réserves: Yuriy Sedyh, premier et recordman olympique avec un lancer de 77.52 m, reçoit les félicitations d'Anatoliy Bondarchuk, deuxième, médaillé d'or en 1972; le médaillé d'argent est Alexey Spiridonov.

A fitting demonstration of Soviet Union superiority and depth in the hammer: Yuriy Sedyh, the winner with a new Olympic record of 77.52 metres, is congratulated by bronze medalist Anatoliy Bondarchuk, gold medalist in 1972. Looking on is the silver medal winner, Alexey Spiridonov.

Titulaire du record mondial, l'Américain Mac Wilkins, était le favori au lancer du disque. Il établit un record olympique de 68.28 m au tour de qualification, et remportera la médaille d'or avec un lancer de 67.50 m en finale.

World record-holder Mac Wilkins (USA), the favorite in the discus, set an Olympic mark of 68.28 metres during the qualifying round, and went on to win the gold medal with a 67.50-m throw in the final.

Aux épreuves de qualification, le lanceur de poids soviétique Alexander Barisnikov établissait un record olympique. Sa performance en finale ne lui vaudra toutefois que la troisième place.

Not able to match his Olympic record performance during qualifications, Alexander Barisnikov (URS) had to settle for the bronze medal in the shot put.

Le huit en pointe avec barreur demeure une épreuve sensationnelle. Les représentants de la République démocratique allemande, champions du monde en 1975, remporteront la médaille d'or à Montréal.

La Grande-Bretagne, jadis souveraine en aviron, a réalisé à Montréal des performances pleines de promesses et remporté notamment la médaille d'argent au huit en pointe.

Most will agree that the most incredible rowing event is the coxed eights. The uncontested masters, the 1975 world champion GDR crew, won the gold medal at Montréal.

Great Britain's performances at the Montréal Games point toward a resurgence of past mastery in rowing. Their eight-oars silver medal augurs well for the 1980 Moscow Games.

L'équipe féminine de l'Union soviétique vient de remporter la médaille d'or. Elle félicite, à sa façon coutumière, Lydia Alexeeva, son entraîneuse.

Happiness is a gold medal in the Olympic Games, and the winning women's basketball team from the Soviet Union honors coach Lydia Alexeeva in its own inimitable way.

Remise des médailles du premier tournoi olympique féminin de basket-ball. L'équipe soviétique remporte la médaille d'or, les équipes américaine et bulgare, les médailles d'argent et de bronze.

Medal ceremony for the first women's Olympic basketball tournament: the Soviet Union won the gold, and the United States and Bulgaria the silver and bronze respectively.

Le Soviétique Vladimir Tkachenko, le joueur le plus grand du tournoi (2,26 mètres), se fait quand même soustraire le ballon par l'Australien Russell Simon.

The size of Vladimir Tkachenko (2.26 m) did not help the Soviet player here as Australia's Russell Simon got inside the tallest competitor of the Games and snared the rebound.
